

Konrad Levicki – biography:

picture: private

Violinist Konrad Levicki performed in all prominent concert halls of Lithuania, participated in international festivals in Germany and Portugal and gave concerts in Austria, Belarus, Estonia and Russia. As a soloist Konrad Levicki performed with Lithuanian State Symphony Orchestra, St. Christopher Chamber Orchestra, VDU Music Academy Chamber Orchestra and M. K. Čiurlionis School Symphony Orchestra. The violinist started his musical path when he was seven years old at the M. K. Čiurlionis School of Arts. After graduating from the school he now continues his violin studies at Lithuanian Academy of Music and Theatre with Dalia Kuznevocaitė. In 2017 Konrad Levicki studied in the frame of exchange studies with Professor Christian Altenburger at the University of Music and Performing Arts Vienna. Furthermore, he had lessons with Andrey Baranov, Tanja Becker-Bender, Nikita Borisoglebksy, Boris Brovtsyn, Lynn Chang, Boris Garlitsky, Hagai Shaham and many others.

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ymss_e6igDs

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FncWYeRzyOQ>