

Berenika Friso:

Picture: Daniel Reiche

Berenika Friso was born 08.01.1996 in Krakow (Poland), she is a young violinist who engages in lots of artistic projects. From an early age, she took part in many competitions and makro-regional hearings.

Since 2014 she regularly plays in Krakow Film Music Festival, she also participates in projects with orchestra "Fresco sonare" where the conductor is doctor Monika Bachowska. She is also involved in the activities in Krakow Chamber orchestra dell'Arte.

Together with the string quartet, she took part in master classes with Gianfranco Borelli. In 2016 she participated in music courses in Łąck in the class of doctor Oriana Masternak.

She is also involved in the activities of the orchestra of the AGH University of Science and Technology "Con Fuoco". She participates in the projects of the orchestra "Ardente" and the Wieliczka Chamber Orchestra.

She had the pleasure of collaborating with such musicians as Adam Sztaba and Natalia Niemen during concerts of the World Youth Days in Krakow, Jean-Pierre Menuge during a tour in northern France and Grażyna Brodzińska and Marcin Jajkiewicz during concerts with the Katowice Chamber Orchestra.

Currently a student at the Music Academy in Krakow in the violin class of professor Roman Reiner.